The Anglo Latin American Foundation (ALAF)

A registered charity was formed in 1986 to bring together the British Public and the Latin American Community in Britain to raise funds for underprivileged children in Latin America. The main instrument for raising funds is an annual festival, in which friendship societies, charitable institutions such as the Friends of Colombia and Friends of Bolivia as well as embassies from nineteen Latin American countries all take part.

At this festival, visitors will have the opportunity to savour food and drink from all parts of South and Central America, and Mexico, to buy their craft products and to listen and dance to Tango from Argentina, Samba and Bossa Nova from Brazil, Cumbias from Colombia, music from Bolivia and Peru, and Mariachis from Mexico.

There will also be a raffle with numerous prizes.

1st Prize

2 return tickets to Rio de Janeiro

All proceeds of the stands will go to support children's charities in Latin America.

If visitors wish to avoid the queues at the door, they may buy tickets in advance.
